

Colgate University

Class of 1951 Memorial Endowed Scholarship

Description

Established on the occasion of their 50th Reunion by the members of the Class of 1951 in memory of their deceased classmates to provide financial assistance for one or more deserving students at Colgate. This scholarship is awarded with preference given to qualified students who are known by the university to be direct or collateral descendants of members of the Class of 1951.

Contacts

Mr. Thomas C. Walbridge '51 and Mrs. Peg Walbridge

Thomas Walbridge graduated in 1951 from Colgate University where he majored in sociology and anthropology. Outside of the classroom, he sang in the University Chorus, joined the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, and played varsity lacrosse.

Office of Stewardship
Colgate University
13 Oak Drive, Hamilton, NY 13346